Wanted to add my name to the guest book. You were a good Dad. I changed it up and called him Pop. He was always selfless and did most everything for others. He was the first to want you to do the right thing, maybe yelled a little here and there, but in the end, when you understood where he was coming from and where he was going to, it all worked out and he then always picked up the check. He's up in Heaven playing cards with Uncle Bill, his Dad, Lou Kapp and Great Grandad John Luber. His Mom is right behind him making up some sausage for breakfast and some homemade pie for dessert. Love you Pop.

Condolences to the Langhauser family. Back in the early 80's Leon and I sat near each other while we worked for Howard Buoy at ADM's Tech Services. I was new to Tech Services and Leon helped me in many ways. He was a very special person. RIP Leon.

When Leon was in charge of facilities projects, I called ADM while on a business trip to Decatur, hoping just to introduce myself and visit briefly.. He agreed. Then, we figured out we were both in the Guard...Army for Leon. Air (Peoria) for me. An hour and a half later, we broke up the meeting. We (Shive Hattery) would end up doing multiple projects for Leon. We remained friends long after. He created a great legacy. Harley Thornton
