My wife Karen and I would like to say that Jerry and his family welcomed us into their neighborhood with open arms. When times were tough Jerry and his wife were always there to help us. As the years went by we all became the best of friends. Our neighborhood was considered very rough. But, we all stuck together. After my wife and I decided to move away, we still stayed in contact. The news of Jerry's passing has devastated us emotionally, because we love him very much. Jerry was very tough and endured his pain and suffering. Jerry was a true soldier and unafraid of most things in life. Jerry is no longer suffering or in pain! He is gone, but not forgotten. His life light burned bright here on earth and I know it's shining even brighter in heaven. Rest in peace my friend you done your job here on earth. We miss you Jerry Kerwood. Your friends F. & K. ABBEY
