Many years ago, in the middle to late 80s, I was blessed with the opportunity to work with Georgia. She was a steady co-worker who could be relied upon to stay calm and turn out quality work during the tornadoes that Steak n Shake knew as lunch or supper hours. After I quit Steak n Shake for good, I lost track of Georgia but I often wondered what had become of her. I admired her, you see. Anyway, about a year ago I was in Kroger when I heard someone say "Mable Davis" and when I turned around there she was. We had both changed some during the years that had passed but we still knew each other. She hugged me and I hugged her and it was just so good to see my friend. She gave me her phone number and we both promised we would get together soon and I really meant to make that happen. There was plenty of time, right? But there wasn't and it makes me sad. So I will take this little bit of time today to say to you, her family, how deeply sorry I am for the loss of this beautiful woman.
