I just found out about phil a few weeks ago..its been a year since we spoke. We were close though and I looked up to Phil and had known him for years. He inspired me to go back to school. He was an amazing friend. I will always love my dear friend. If anyone from the family could please contact me, I have great stories and photos to share of good times we had. I was good friends with Phil. He had such an impact on people wherever he went. It wasn't easy for Phil to go unnoticed anywhere. He was so friendly and so funny. He used to say he had "an excess of personality" as he used to put it. And he was so right. He will be missed.

After Phil moved to Decatur, Phil went on the Spoon River Drive with me and my wife. We ate lunch together with the same group of guys, and played guitar together on Thursday nights.
