So sorry to hear of the death of your Mother. It was always a pleasure when Marguerite and George would make a stop to visit your Tucson cousins, Jacque (Fenton) Vail and Bill. And, we loved Marguerite's story telling and wonderful smile. Lots of good memories. Ray Fenton

I have wonderful memories when I think of your Mother, especially when we shared Mark and Mike's cub scout "mothering". She was such a great woman who gave us all her smiling countenance. Peace be with you all.
