I am so sorry for your loss. Although it has been many, many years since I have seen Judy I have never forgotten her. Judy was my very first playmate when we were neighbors on North Union Street in Decatur. Judy's mother & my mother took turns walking us to Lincoln school where we attended kindergarten. We spent many hours playing together and although we lost touch I never forgot my first best friend. I offer prayers and blessing for all of you. Nancy King Ator

Kenny, I know its been years since high school but I have fond memories of seeing your mom at St Teresa baseball games and what a dear sweet kind lady she was. I am sooo sorry for your loss and may God comfort you and your family as I am praying for everyone. Even as I turned older I would see her out and she would still know who I was and that to me was the kind gracious lady she was and she will always be remembered. Take Care and this old friend from St T is thinking of you!!!! God bless!!!!!! Elizabeth
