My deepest condolences to John and family on Peggy's passing. She is with her Lord and released from all pain. It was such a privilege to know Peggy. She was a beautiful person—inside and out. We got to know each other several months ago and she was always more inspirational to me than I felt I was to her. Her strong faith and trust in the Lord gave her daily strength. Will see you again, Peggy! John, praying for you during this time of sorrow. Peggy told me of you two taking off in a plane, not knowing where you would end up and some of the stories related to those adventures. Memories are a wonderful consolation. Thoughts and prayers, Jacki Wahl Rockford, IL
