I've known Sharon since I was about 5 years old....she was a very good friend of my sisters. My best memories of Sharon would be riding around in her great big car, her great big beautiful smile, and the few times we would all pile up in her car and drive to the Chapel Picnic. R.I.P. Sharon we all love you!

So sorry for your lost I loved her so much. You all are like family to me and my kids. Sharon and I met when I was 13 we became freinds that day. There not a memory in my life that she wasn't in I will miss her. As teenagers we had so much fun in her dads car riding up and down Eido going to the park to wash her dads car.She had only one 8 track tape it was Queen fat bottom girl watching her sing it was so fun. I will miss you my sister and so will your baby Girt. R.I.P love ya ,
