I will always remember that "The Bunkers" were a fun part of our childhood. I will never forget Nadine's laugh as we listened from our upstairs bedroom during bridge parties. She had a great laugh. Of course, it was Mrs. Bunker back then as we never called our parents' friends by their first names: My sympathies to your family. Monticello, IL US

You have our deepest condolences: Harlan, we could never forget Nadine. You & all the family, have our prayers. I know Nadine is at home at last. I don't believe she needs our Prayers, but she will have them anyway. We hope to see her again in that Heavenly Home, where there is no pain or sorrow. What A Wonderful Day That Will Be!!!
