Steve and Marlene, I most remember Uncle Glenn as humorous and proud. I specifically remember him bragging about how Steve will become a millionaire because he could pick up a bike, fix it, and resale it for profit; and Marlene, his pride in watching her bounce around the house, like a princess. I love you guys – may God bless you and your families. Remember good times. Battle Creek, IL US

To the family of Glen, we had the same name and were both from Bingham. I lived south and over the railroad overpass. Glen was a year behind me in school but were fair buddies and showed our livestock at the Brownstown fair. I don't remember seeing him in 50 years. The photo surprised me but has a mischievous look as I remember him being humorous and fun. I wish we could have paled around in the later years. May his soul rest in peace. I remember growing up north of Bingham next to Kenneth and Margaret and the boys. Hadn't seen Earl or Glen for years. About two years ago I seen Glen at a sale somewhere around Vandalia. Talked about old times around Halford's Chapel and the old farms there. It was good to talk with him..R.I.P. Vandalia, IL US
