Jeffery Wayne Browning, “philo”, left us on January 23, 2009 at the young age of 40. He was born May 16, 1968 in Decatur at St. Mary’s Hospital. He was a student of Niantic-Harristown School, class of 1986. He loved to work on cars, loved to build houses, and fix things, even when there was nothing wrong to fix. He loved to meet new people. He loved to just have fun and enjoy life. He will be greatly missed by his family and friends.

He was a loving son of Wanda Browning of Decatur, and Roger Browning and his wife, Terri Jasper, also of Decatur. He was a loving father to his daughter, Blake Neathery. He was a loving brother to Mathu Browning and his wife, Amanda. He was a wonderful uncle to Mathu, Arieal, Casey and Cortney Browning. He was a wonderful boyfriend to Tracy Moore. He was a best friend to Craig Tucker. He was a nephew to Jerry “Mouse” Logue and his wife, Pam, and to Jeff Logue. He was loved by many, and he had many friends.

He was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Wayne and Ruth Logue, and paternal grandparents, Orville and Mildred Browning; one Uncle and one Aunt, Bob and Karen Browning.

Wanda-please accept my heartfelt sympathy for your devastating loss. I cannot imagine losing a child. May you find strength in the support of family and friends. Although the reason for tragedies like this are not understood, it will be revealed one day. Although you will never forget, I hope you can eventually find peace and comfort in happy memories. God has told us that at all times, in all places, and in all circumstances, nothing can separate us from His love. Lean on Him.Sincerely, Jane Mt. Zion, IL US
