To the Lynn family, May God be with you all during your bereavement. I know God will give you healing and comfort if you hold on to His unchanging hand. Addie will always be remembered for her willingness to speak her mind. She taught me a lot when I was growing up as a teen....things my Mom didn't tell me. Even though they were sisters, they were very different. I appreciated the frank talks we had. She would share some of her mistakes and say "now don't do what I did". I learned a lot about life from her and will be forever grateful. We shared many a laugh because she always had something crazy to say. She will be missed but never forgotten. Greetings to the Lynn Family. Hi, Pat, James, Al and Carlos the other two siblings I do not know, but hello to them too. I feel your pain of the loss of your mother because I lost my mother Fannie Stewart in November, a day after Thanksgiving. It was difficult to accept, but I yet gave and is still giving God the praise because He allowed us to have our mother for 71 years. Addie lived a little bit longer than Momma did but we can yet give God the glory because He never makes a mistake. We hate to lose our love ones but they are not in no more pain nor are they suffering anymore. It has not been a year yet since I lost my mother, I have cried some many tears and my heart has felt some much pain but God has strengthen me and gave me joy unspeakable and full of glory. Go ahead and cry because crying releases some of the pressure but know this weeping may endure for awhile but God will and can wipe all our tears away. You will always miss your mother because there is nothing like a mother's love, nobody can ever take their place but I am at peace knowing she is resting now. Look to God He is the only one who can comfort you at this time and for the times to come, but I just wanted to give my condolence to you all to be encourage and keep the faith God will take care of you. Prayfully submitted Crystal Jackson Young. Decatur, IL US

Dear friends and family of Ms. Addie Lynn: Please find comfort and peace as you mourn and celebrate Addie's Life. I knew Addie for 28 years as a co-worker at RCC and we shared many a laugh. I respected Addie for many qualities particularly her frankness and lack of the phoney and fake in a world full of that behavior. I'll miss her and her generosity. As she would say: "Have a Blessed day!" Lonn and Mary Pressnall of Forsyth and RCC Forsyth, IL US

One behalf of the Campbell, Johnson, Easley, and Hollie families, we extend our deepest condolence to family of Addie V. Lynn. After twenty years of friendship I have come to know Addie as a one of a kind woman. She enjoyed her pleasures and endured her sorrows for she knew her experiences brought new people into her life. I'm glad she came into our lives! I thank Ms. Addie for the love she shared with children that included our children and grandchildren. Ms. Addie and I often laughed about not being able to sing but we could make a great noise. And if I could sing I would sing her a hymn I recently heard by Kim Noblitt c 1992 Integrity's Praise/BMI. If You Could See Me Now. Our prayers have all been answered. I finally arrived. The healing that had been delayed has now been realized. No one's in a hurry. There's no schedule to keep. We're all enjoying Jesus, just sitting at His feet. Cho: If you could see me now, I'm walking streets of gold. If you could see me now, I'm standing strong and whole. If you could see me now, you'd know I've seen His face. If you could see me now, you'd know the pain is erased. You wouldn't want me to ever leave this place, If you could only see me now. My light and temporary trials have worked out for my good, To know it brought Him glory when I misunderstood. Though we've had our sorrows, they can never compare. What Jesus has in store for us, no language can share. Chorus twice You wouldn't want me to ever leave this perfect place. If you could only see me now. If you could see me now. If you could only see me now. Sleep well Ms. Addie. Take your rest, and one day we will meet you again on the other side of Jordan. Your sista-friend, Springfield, MN US
