To my family I am sorry that I could not be with you all but you are in my heart, thoughts & prayers. I really loved my Aunt Dollie Mae and was truly saddened when she was taken away from me once again for the last time. You see the last time I remember seeing my Aunt Dollie was when my father passed but we were reunited in 1998 and we talked on the phone every night up until she became ill but I have learned that God does things for a reason & God taking her from me before I was able to see her again has only helped me to understand what my pastor has been teaching us that our time is winding down the end is near and that God is soon to come for his children and we need to get saved I thank God that I know him and My Aunt Dollie was Blessed to know him in her own way. So my Dear family I know it hurts but turn your pain over to God he will wipe away our tears and heal our broken hearts. I love you all very much and you will always remain in my heart. Love your niece and cousin Alisha Coleman Your brother & Uncles Roberts L. Coleman's daughter Lincoln, NE US
