Stacy and I are praying for you Don! and for the rest of the family – Donny, Dick, Annie, and Steve. May the Holy Spirit bring you peace in this time of sorrow. Yet know that God's grace is there, as he has promised. I still have some great memories of Sheila when I was just a little boy and we were all skiing at Devil's Head – almost 30 years ago now. My condolences are with you all. There are so many memories I have of Sheila and the family that always brings a smile. I know she will be greatly missed, but the memories we have will carry on with us forever. I was blessed with being a part of the "extended" Brunner family. I am sorry that I will not be able to attend, but please know my thoughts and prayers are with you all. I love you all very much. Bedford, TX US
