Even though we were always miles apart thoughts and remembrance of family was and is always on our minds. I fondly remember visits and such to my Uncle's home especially when I was younger. His facination with the electric car racing sets were set in my mind from that day. And when Uncle D and Uncle H was living in Missouri on the ranch area and I was able to learn how to drive for my first time, that is a time you never forget. I can't even think of being able to forget Uncle D and Uncle H separately. As far back as I can remember, they were inseperatable. Brothers they lived and Brothers they shall reunite. Thank You for your participation in the Korean War. Though some think it to be wrong, I know many many people who were young children, now aged, who remember how it was during that era who now live in the USA and saw how their families were destroyed and they were saved by people like you who served for the cause. Again Thank You... From me, From Them. Good bye for now Uncle D. Rest in Peace. Tacoma, WA US
