My mom always called her "June Baby." She was the baby then, around 1929, when Mom married my Dad and entered the family. I will miss her also. But she will always paint golden threads in my memory of her. Take care of yourselves, Love, cousin Jean and Warren San Francisco, CA US

My deepest sympathy on the loss of Aunt June. She was always one of Tim's favorites and I feel honored to have gotten a chance to know her too. I thought of her as the matriarch of the family... since I was late coming into this family. Her times she visited with me are special to me. She told me so much about the family. She will certainly be missed and I pray for comfort for all the family. Auburn, AL US
