17 years of her torment we never gave up. With those were good and bad times. WE never gave up until God said so.

My sympathy to all my cousins and their families. I will always remember an Easter Sunday we spent with Teresa, Tony and their two oldest kids. I watched intently as Teresa made fried chicken. Not sure why I was at her elbow watching, but was fascinated at how efficient she was. I think it was a wonderful Easter and one I shall always remember and cherish. Your Favorite Cousin, Janet Miller
