Well, Cousin Phyllis, you left us and we did not get to say "goodbye" to you. My wife, Rae-Lynne and I always felt as ease around your beautiful self. We realize you had your shares of heartbreak during your stay. Now I know what it means when someone says, "the good die young". As we both were teenagers together, I still can remember all the times at Grandma & Grandpa Ryder's home. Going to the Rogers theatre with your brother Richard to see a double feature. Going downtown via the bus and going to Del's Popcorn Shop. Even to a few dances at the old St. Nicholas Hotel. They are all precious memories to me. All the times watching movies in the park and staying with your Mom and my Aunt Maxine during many summer months. I will cherish those memories forever. Rae-Lynne and I want to send our deepest heartfelt sympathy to your family. It will not be the same without you. May you rest in peace forever sweet cousin Phyllis. Love always and God Bless you.
