So sorry for your loss. I worked with Matt at LRS. He always had a smile for everyone, and he laughed easily and often. He spent several days generously helping me configure and build a custom PC, he was so cheerful and talked constantly of Sarah and Brandon. He touched a lot of people, and will be missed by all of us. RIP Matt.

I am so sorry to hear this Sarah, I loved when you would come through my line at Sams Club, and how he would make me laugh. He was such a loving and caring guy, whom I am privileged to know even if it was only when you came shopping. Keeping you all in my prayers. Sending you love and hugs.

I am shocked and saddened by the passing of Matt. His death was so untimely - left us too early - deserved more years in his life. Matt was such a good person and brought joy and happiness to his family and friends. He faced many health challenges - always went "above and beyond" to overcome them. He will be greatly missed. Love and prayers to Brendan, Jim, Marilyn and Sarah.

To Marilyn mother and Matt's brother Jim. Our thoughts remembering back years ago and our close relation at that time and Matt growing up is like yesterday. So sorry for the loss of a son, brother and loved one. Years have separate us but memories have not and you most of all have not or will. Still remember years passed and at this time our thoughts, prayers and love from us. God bless and you stay safe. Tony and Lois Fleckenstein.
