Marion was a hardworking, dependable, loyal individual who could run circles around those half her age. Full of vigor and energy and most of all love! She was tough-as-nails, straight forward and fearless. She was beautifully-handsome, poised and professional. She was strong in her faith and made it her mission to share her blessings with all. She made an impact on so many lives and her community. She lived her life for her God and the betterment of mankind. Many were blessed to know her. I was blessed to never miss an opportunity to let each other know we loved one another and how much we meant to one another. Gone too soon but God has other plans for her. She will be deeply missed. ❤️ Lesa Allison Hassinger.
