Linda Reed

FEB 22, 1942 - SEP 16, 2023

Linda Reed passed away September 16, 2023, at the age of 81.

She graduated from Eisenhower High School in Decatur in 1960. She worked for over 30 years at the Citizens National Bank in Decatur. She was a 50-year member of Grace United Methodist Church and later joined First United Methodist Church. She was a kind soul, always willing to help and active in church events.

Linda had no children or siblings. She was the daughter of Kenneth and Nora Reed. Nora was a third generation of the Shively family in LaPlace and Cerro Gordo. Her grandparent was Joseph Shively. She was very close to her cousins Jacalyn (Dave) Osborne, daughter Angela, and John Michael Crowe (Marsha), daughter Micole O'Brien.

Please join us in a memorial service for Linda on Thursday, September 28, 2023, at 11am at Decatur First United Methodist Church (201 W. North St., Decatur, IL). A luncheon will follow the service. Linda would be honored to have you join us.

I didn't know until today that Linda had passed away. This breaks my heart. I used to pick Linda up on Saturdays and took her Lock Stock and Barrel for "Jazz Saturdays". We loved listening to the Jazz bands and eating Turkey sandwiches on croissant. She told me funny/outrageous stories about her past and her cousin (June Christy-famous Jazz singer). She also used to visit me when I was working at Christopher & Banks, when she shopped at the mall. She will be truly missed. 😭
